The features we have completed so far are:

Character movement

Level design for level 1 and 2

Website design

Game and website integration

Our demo showed off the interaction between the game and the website. It also showed how our game looks, our website looks, and how the game plays

Some suggestions the TA gave us were:

To add a character selection option

Add sounds and music to the game